EPISCOPAL DEPUTIES

PROPOSITION AT MINNEAPOLIS TO CHECK HOUSE OF BISHOPS.

Biddle's Resolution Defeated and Convention Took Up Other Subjects Interesting the Church.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 7 .- There was a sharp debate in the House of Deputies this morning over a proposition to put a check on the House of Bishops by requiring that it should act on all matters of legislation coming from the House of Deputies within three days, or the same would go into effect without the bishops' senction. The resolution was introduced the other day by Deputy Biddle, of Pennsylvania. Several amendments were proposed to it and a sharp contest waged as to the privileges of the bishops and on the question as to whether they should be encouraged to sit with closed doors. Everything was voted down, including the Biddle amendment and the bishops will be left without restraint. Another debate came up over the taking from the calendar of a resolution thanking the bishops for their pastoral letter of 1894. A parliamentary tangle for twenty minutes ensued and finally the entire matter was laid on the

The deputies spent the entire afternoon in debate and the only action on record is that they decided to hereafter call an assistant bishop, "hishop coadjutor." This is in accordance with the desires of the revision commission which recommended the term bishop coadjutor. This was not done without considerable debate, however, as there was a strong element in favor of retaining the old name "assistant hishop." Another debate ensued over the question of selecting a term by which the head of the House of Bishops should be known. At present he is called presiding bishop and holds office through seniority. The revised version calls him a "primus" and has him elected. There was strong opposition to the use of Latin words and many other names were suggested. Among them were archbishop, president bishop and primate. This last will be finally adopted, although the debate is still on. The other terms have all been This evening the Church Club, of Minne polis, gave an elaborate banquet at the yan Hotel in St. Paul and the American hurch Sunday school tri-ennial institute opened at St. Mark's Church in this city.

CHIEF JUSTICE'S SON, WHO WAS ARTIST, POET AND SCULPTOR.

Live! in Italy Since 1848, and Wa Honored In the World of Artists--The Mortuary Record.

LONDON, Oct. 8 .- The Times this morning announces that William Storey, the American sculptor, died at Vallambrosa, at the residence of his daughter, the Marchesa Peruzzi.

William Wetmore Storey, artist, sculptor and poet, was born at Salem, Mass., Feb. 12, 1819, and was the son of Joseph Storey, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States and the famous commentator on the Constitution. He was graduated at Harvard in 1838 and of its law department in 1840, where he studied under his father's direction. He was admitted to the bar and devoted his attention largely to the preparation of law re-Storey was the poet of his class, and in he delivered a poem at the dedication of the statue of Beethoven at the Boston Music Hall. In 1848 his fondness for art led to his going to Italy, where he had ever since resided, devoting his attention chiefly to sculpture. His statue of his father in the chapel of Mount Auburn Cemetery, of Edward Everett in the Boston Public Garden, busts of James Russell Lowell, Theodore Parker and Josiah Quir cy, and the sitting statue of Chief Justice Marshall in front of the west terrace of the Capitol at Washington are well-known examples of his art, and he modeled bronze statue of George Peabody, which was erected in London in 1889, and replica of which was presented, in 1888, to the city of Baltimore through the liberality of Robert Garrett. He was a United State ner on fine arts to the world's fair at Paris in 1879, and has received decorations from France and Italy. Mr. Storey held a professorship in the Academia Deg li Arcadi St. Cecilia, and had received the degree of D. C. L. (doctor of civil law) in the University of Oxford and an honorary degree from the University of Bologna on its eight hundredth anniversary. Among his other work are "Sappho," "Saul," "Delilah," "Helen," "Judith," "Sardanapalus," "Jerusalem in her Desolation," "Gollath" "Achilles." His "Cleopatra" and miramis" are now in the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York city. Mr. Storey was also an accomplished musician. Since his residence abroad h had composed "Life and Letters of Joseph Storey," a volume of poems and numerous other books of poetry, essays and in other departments of literature.

Smythe, a Boston lawyer, who charged that Scott and his father, John G. Scott, a wealthy Philadelphia coal dealer, had abducted her in Boston and were depriving ner of her liberty. The couple were married in Glasgow, Scotland when young Scott was sent abroad to study at Heidelberg University, but the husband secured a divorce in Dakota, which, it developed to-day, had since been set aside. The return to the writ showed that young Scott had found his wife in Boston; that there had been a complete distion and that the young woman had freely accompanied her nusband this city and was then in court. He asked that the writ be dismissed with costs, which was so ordered by Judge Peach.

SENATOR COGGESHALL CASE.

Witness Refuses to Give Evidence in Bribery Investigation.

ROME, N. Y., Oct. 7 .- Robert Lewis, of Lowell, the weaver delegate, who said a bribe of $500 was offered him if he would vote in the Republican convention held here in August, for the renomination of Senator Coggeshall, appeared before the grand jury, which convened here to-day. In charging alleged bribery would be presented, and he desired it thoroughly investigated. After being out thirty minutes, the jury, District Attorney Klock and Lewis appeared in court. Mr. Klock said:

"Your Honor, Mr. Lewis desires you to instruct the jury, before him, as to the questions he is obliged to answer."

The judge replied: "The jury will return and Mr. Lewis must replied answer all questions but to him on the subject." put to him on the subject."

In less than one hour the jury again came into court and the foreman said Mr. Lewis would not answer any questions put to him on the subject. Mr. Klock then asked the court to impose a fine for contempt of court and also to imprison Mr. Lewis. This the court refused to do, and said he would allow Mr. Lewis to again appear before the jury to-morrow and the court adjourned, Mr. Lewis being allowed to go without bail.

Final Court Decision Against Thomson-Houston Electric Company.

CHICAGO, Oct. 7 .- The United States Circuit Court of Appeals to-day handed down, among others, an opinion upon which depended, it is estimated, not less than $2,-900,000, and a practical monopoly of the arc electric lighting business for four years. The Thomson-Houston Electric Company was the unsuccessful party in the suit. The tomatic regulator, which, as to electric lighting, performs a function similar to that of a governor on the steam engine. The suit was begun against the Western Electric Company, of this city, praying an injunction restraining the defendant company from using the regulator, and asking an accounting. The suit came to trial be-fore Judge Grosscup in June, 1894. The court upheld the contention of the Wes ern Elec-tric Company, that the second patent, which it was claimed was being infringed. was void because of the prior issue of the patent covering the device. An appeal was taken to the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, which to-day affirmed Judge Gross-cup's ruling and ordered a dismissal of the case. This is final.

Robbers Take Toll from Crowded Electric Car.

CHICAGO, Oct. 7 .- An Evanston electric car was stopped to-night between Argyle Park and Edgewater by five masked men. shortly after 8 o'clock. Two of the robbers covered the motorman and conductor and the other three entered the car with drawn revolvers. There were eighteen passengers. The women screamed and those of the men who made a movement to escape were given an opportunity to look into the mouth were under control, one of the robbers quickly passed down the car, appropriating the valuables of everyone present.

Within five minutes from the time the car was stopped the holdup was a thing of the past, the robbers had escaped and the car was speeding on again. The conductor lost all the fares he had collected during the day and some of the pasengers were relieved of watches and money to the expersons are reported to have been badly injured by the robbers.

INDICTED A LEGISLATOR.

G. W. SCARBOROUGH. MRS. G. W. SCARBOROUGH. The peculiarity of the disease is causing the failure of the physicians to successfully combat it. It is similar to common forms of poisoning out is proof against all antidotes and cal remedies. Some of the victims show every symptom of trichinosis, yet the ordinary treatment fails to eradicate the disease or allay the fever with which it is accompanied. Others appear to be afflicted with ptomaine, and the antidotes administered in cases of mineral poisoning have not the slightest tendency to check the illness. The fact that most of the victims were not stricken until three weeks after partaking of the wedding feast furnishes another surprise. There are twenty-five cases in Sabula. In the surrounding country of Jackson county are fifty or sixty more patients. The symptoms are alike in every instance. Jackson county is terror-stricken. Those who are slightly ill are apprehensive of more serisistance relieves them. Those who are not ill, but who were at the wedding, are fearful that the disease will soon assert itself in them. The outside physicians called in are as much in the dark as the local doctors. It has transpired that after the meats which were served at the wedding feast had been cooked, the wedding had been postponed for four days. Between the interval of this postponement and the marriage the weather was very warm and the meats, which were not leed or otherwise preserved, became tainted. A MINE DISASTER.

Explosion in Which at Least Eleht Men Lose Their Lives. WILKESBARRE, Pa., Oct. 7 .- Shortly after 5 o'clock this afternoon a terrific explosion of gas occurred in the Dorrance mine, operated by the Lehigh Valley Coal Company, which is situated in the northwestern part of the city. It is not yet known how many men were in the mine, The officials are very reticent, and it is almost impossible to get any information from the levels of the earth where the.

rescuers are at work. At midnight the rescuers had made very little headway in their efforts to reach the victims of the explosion. Fire damp made its apearance shortly after 8 o'clock, and it was necessary to do considerable brattice work, which proceeded very slowly. There is a strong suspicion also that the ex-plosion caused a heavy fall in the old workngs, and that this will further retard the work of the rescuers. It is now admitted by the mine officials that there is no hope of finding the engineer corps alive. They all perished in the explosion, and if they were not killed outright they were suffocated by the fire damp. The superintendent is of the opinion that they were killed by force of the explosion, and that their bod-les probably burned to a crisp. All but eight miners and laborers have now been accounted for. Whether these eight peruntil to-morrow. Superintendent Chase thinks, however, that the list of dead will

JOSEPH MURPHY. The first two are members of the engineer corps. Moss and Lafly are laborers and Murphy is a driver. Miller and Blanchard are so badly burned that they cannot live. Blanchard gave his version of the explosion to a reporter as he lay on a cot in the hospital.

Shortly after 5 o'clock the engineer corps decided to make a survey of the old abanloned workings known as the Baltimore section, which underlie the grounds of the Wilkesbarre baseball club, one mile distant from the main opening of the mine. The party, which was in charge of fire boss Daniel Reese, who is an expert on mine gases, consisted of William Jones, William Cahill and Llewellyn Holmes. Blanchard and Miller were left behind to finish some work that had been started in the morning. About twelve minutes after the party had left Miller and Blanchard the explosion occurred. Both Miller and Blanchard were knocked down by its force. Flying timbers also struck Miller, breaking both his arms.

After being knocked down Miller and Blanchard remembered nothing until they were revived at the hospital. Blanchard thinks some of the engineers or probably the fire boss set fire to a body of gas in the old workings, and that all of the party must have been instantly killed. When Blanchard was found he was being slowly roasted to death. The gas had set fire to his clothes, and they had been almost burned off his body when the rescuers came to him. Miller, with his broken arms, could render him no assistance, and Blanchard was so pinned down by debris that he could not make use of his hands.

At 9 o'clock Moss, Lafly and Murphy were brought to the surface. They, too, were badly burned and were taken to the WENONA, Ill., Oct. 7 .- The inhabitants of this town were greatly alarmed this morning by an earthquake. The shock occurred at 1:20 o'clock a. m. and was preceded by a rumbling noise that awakened nearly everyone. A few moments later there was a shock. Then there was a lull for two or three minutes, followed by more rumbling and then more quaking, which was so violent as to shake dishes from the pantry shelves. Many people ran to the streets in their fright and in some instances women screamed. It was over an hour before quiet was restored and many people were so alarmed that they sat up until daylight. The shock was so violent that a good deal of damage was done to the coal mines in the vicinity. Slate and rock was shaken from the roofs and veins and there is scarcely a mine but will have there is scarcely a mine but will have to expend $200 or $300 to repair the dam-

PLATT MEN AND STATE DEMOCRATS AGREE ON TICKET.

Surprise Sprung on the Convention in Lyric Hall and the Plan Enthusinstically Indorsed.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7 .- There was considerable excitement before the formal openin Lyric Hall this evening when the repor was received that a fusion ticket had been decided on and that the nominating com mittee had agreed on the following candi-

For Judges of the Court of General Ses sions-Thomas Allison, Platt Republican John Felbell, State Democrat. For City Court Justices—Henry C. Beatty, Platt Republican; Daniel O'Connell, State Democrat; James W. Hawes, Republican.

The ticket was finally agreed upon at the conference at Republican headquarters, which lasted almost to the hour of holdwhich lasted almost to the hour of hole pointment to the "straight ticket" men, as three places had been conceded to the State Democracy, one to the "Committee of Fifty" and one to the "Good Govern-There was left but four Platt Republic ans on the ticket, as James W. Hawes has not been identified with either faction.

The Stecklers independent county organization and the Jimmie O'Brien anti-Tammany Democracy were refused a place on the ticket. Edward Lauterback, however, and the other Platt leaders expresse themselves as satisfied with the ticket. The Republicans and State Democrati both held county conventions and formally placed in nomination the fusion ticket. I is expected that the German-American Reform Union will indorse the ticket because the excise plank of the State Democracy is indorsed. That plank charges Tammany Hall with responsibility for the exis of the present excise law, speaks for the sanctity of the Sabbath and concludes: "We favor and will endeavor to secure such a modification of existing laws as will prevent blackmail, partiality and oppression, and will enable the city to de termine for itself by popular vote, whether the sale of food, beverages and other necessaries shall be permitted on Sunday during such hours and under such restrictions as will not interfere with religious observances and exercises.

The Republican convention was addressed by Mr. Lauterbach and others, who ex-plained the details of the fusion. Some sition was made to the acceptance of the fusion ticket on account of the pres-ence of two Chamber of Commerce men on it. Finally it was adopted, there being only twenty-four opposing votes among nearly three hundred delegates. Then the Almet F. Jenks, who was nominated by the regular Democratic judiciary conven tion for the Supreme Court, and against whom there has been opposition by the re-formers, withdrew his name from the ticket to-night. NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct 7 .- This has been town election day in Connecticut elections being held in 164 out of the 168 local ones, still this election generally attracts considerable interest as a foreshadowing of what may be expected on the important one for State and national officers. The license question also is of more interest than usual, as the advocates of no license have been particularly active. Norwich went Republican by 525. The vote for license was 1,854; against, 1,068. This is 25 per cent. reduction on the license majority of last year. There was a big fight in the town of Putnam over the license vote. Prohibitionists and law-and-order workers were out in force, but failed to win, as the license advocates rolled up a majority of 144. Town, city and school board elections were held to-day in Waterbury. Kilduff, Democrat, is elected Mayor over Webster, Republican, by a majority of 150. It was a divided victory in Danbury, the Democrats capturing the selectmen's offices and the Republicans the remainder of the town ticket. License was voted by a majority of 600, a marked difference over last year, when it had only a majority of 105. The town of Huntington, in which is the borough of Shelton, had a fierce fight over the license question, after being dry for two years. The vote for license was 412; against, 400. The Republicans elected their own ticket.

Ohio Free Silver Democrats. COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 7 .- The silver Democratic State central committee, of which A. W. Thurman is chairman and W. W. Durbin secretary, to-night issued an address to the Democrats of Ohio urging con certed action looking to the control of the next mational Democratic convention. The address concludes as follows:

"The functions of the government of the United States are distinct and separate from those of the States. Matters of tariff taxation and colnage are functions of the United States, with which the States have nothing directly to do. The support every Democrat is, therefore, due to State ticket. But members of the Legislature who are to be chosen, and who will elect a member of the United States Senate, who will have to vote directly on the monetary question and at a very critical stage of it, should be uncompromisingly pledged, if they are elected as members of the General Assembly, to vote: First, in favor of an open party caucus for the naming of a United States Senator; second. against a secret ballot in caucus; third, against the selection of any man who is not in favor of the free coinage of both gold and silver into full legal-tender money by the United States alone, without reard to the action of any other country. To this end we ask your cordial co-opera-

Crisp Favors Free Silver. NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 7 .- In a letter to Mr. J. W. Gaines, of this city, dated Americus, Ga., Oct. 3, in reference to the reports that he had changed his views on the silver question, ex-Speaker Crisp says:
"I still favor the free coinage of silver and think perhaps I may make a speech or two in Georgia on that line before Con-

PRIZE FIGHTING IS ONLY A MIS-

DEMEANOR IN ARKANSAS.

"Kid" McCoy Bests Big "Abe" Uliman in Thirteen Rounds at Baltimore and Gets the Decision.

DALLAS, Tex., Oct. 7 .- Martin Julian, epresenting Robert Fitzsimmons, and William A. Brady, for J. J. Corbett, arrived in the city to-night. Only Joe Vendig is lacking to make up a quorum to settle the selection of the battleground. He will be in from New York to-morrow afternoon. It is possible all the preliminaries will be arranged to-morrow night, but more than likely they will not be until Wednesday. Bets were freely accepted to-day at odds of 4 to 15 that the fight would come off on Oct. 31. Maher is now putting in ten hours a day at Oak Clift punching the bag, sparring with his trainer, running five miles and repeat, plunging in the lake and doing other developing acts.

The city has already received a hundred or so sporting men, who are here looking over the ground. W. W. Waters and W. H. Martin, of Hot Springs, Ark., a committee representing that city, are here arranging for the Corbett-Fitzsimmons mill to-come off there and will remain here until details are settled. They quote the law of their State as applying to principals and participants in the ring, making prize fighting a misdemeanor with a fine of $1,000 to $2,000 as the penalty. They say the contest can be pulled off there without ques-

A reporter asked Mr. Martin what course Governor Clark would take in the matter. He replied: 'Upon this I am not authorized to speak for the Governor, but I can say that under the law the Governor of the State has no power or authority to interfere except on certain contingencies that cannot possibly arise in this case. Governor Clarke can be relied on at all times and under all cirrelied on at all times and under all circumstances to see that the laws of the State are enforced, in so far as authority to do so is vested in him by the laws and Constitution of our State. His official action is equally beyond the influence of the Puritan, the Pharisee or the outlaw. He will be dictated to by no influences except his own sense of duty and any one capable of determining the duties of a Governor as defined by law can forecast his line of action with greater certainty than by any other test."

"But suppose the Governor should call a pecial session of the Legislature and ecommend that prize fighting be made a "Upon this point the views of the Govfeel warranted in saying it would demand an emergency much greater and more seri-ous than a threatened misdemeanor to induce him to convene the General Assembly in special session." Little Rock Red Hot for It. LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Oct. 7 .- The probbility of the Corbett-Fitzsimmons contest being brought off at Hot Springs was the subject of much discussion in Little Rock to-day. It has all along been well known that Hot Springs was anxious to secure the big event and the benefits to be derived from it, for the press of that city has been outspoken in favor of it. Just what steps have been taken by interested parties to bring the contest to Hot Springs are not known, but it was asserted here to-day by people who professed to know what they were talking about, that the contest will positively take place at the Arkansas resort. This assertion finds many believers in the face of the fact that prize fighting in Arkansas is a misde-meanor, punishable by a fine not exceeding $2,500 for every participant. Should the Governor not interfere, however, there is no doubt about the Hot Springs people being able to bring the contest off success-fully, as there is no city ordinance there against boxing and the local officers are favorable to the contest, Mayor Walten being one of the committee now in Dallas Mr. Martin, the other committeeman, f a well-known lawyer and ex-prosecuting attorney of Garland county. Should the committee be successful in bringing the match to Hot Springs it is believed that there will be no interference during the progress of the contest, but that when is concluded the principals will be arrested and fined according to law. Corbett Boxes Four Lively Rounds. SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Oct. 7 .- Corbett began training this morning at his headquarters in the Jockey Club grounds, After a short walk and a half hour with the gymnastiq apparatus he sparred five min-utes with O'Donnell, Delaney, Daley and IcVey. The bouts were very fast, and Corbett sent O'Donnell to the floor twice Corbett was not touched once during the four bouts. He quit as fresh as when he started, and without blowing a particle. He is looking exceedingly well. THEY CAN'T BE RED SKINS. Indian Commissioner Spoils the Plan of the Prize-Fight Crowd.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7 .- Commissioner Browning, of the Indian Office, has taken prompt and decisive steps to prevent the Corbett-Fitzsimmons prize fight taking place in the Indian Territory. He has prepared a letter of instructions to Agent Wisdom at Muscogee, I. T., directing him to see that the laws are enforced and to eject forcibly any intruders who may enter the Indian country for the purpose of creating a disturbance or of engaging in anything that may be detrimental to the Indians. The Commissioner says that the statutes of the United States are ample to cover the situation and to prevent the fight. The agent will have at his back not only the Indian police, but all the United States troops necessary to eject the fighters. The statutes give the United States authority to keep out of the Indian Territory all whose presence would be detrimental to the peace and prosperity of the Indians. The Commissioner says there is no doubt that the presence of the prize fighters and the gang that would follow them into the Indian country would be very detrimental to the Indians, and that it is therefore the duty of the Indian Office to keep them out. He says that the agent at Muskogee has not got as much authority as the agents on reservations, but, nevertheless, has enough to prevent the fight taking place in the Territory of the five civilized tribes. The Commissioner intends also to notify all the Governors and head men of the five civilized tribes that they must not allow the fight to take place, and must assist the United States authorities in pre-

Commissioner Browning was asked if the dmission to citizenship of Corbett, Fitssimmons and others connected with the fight in one of the tribes would make and difference in the authority of the government, and he said that it would not change the conditions in the least. The government has the power to expel a full-bloods Indian from the Territory if the peace and good order of the Indians required it. The government will be able to exercise a great leal of discretion in the affair.
